

I've been a subscriber to XM for a year now, and I don't regret having it. It gives me a choice to listen to what I, as an American, want to listen to, when I want to listen to it. It would be a crime to not have this service available to whoever chooses it. The government should worry about more trying issues in this country as opposed to squashing satellite radio. Thank you for time.